On behalf of my colleagues, I want to tell you how indebted we are for your participation in our Guest Speaker Program. Your "An Academician's View of the World, the United Nations (and tulips!)" was truly elegant and articulate. I have heard from so many that you were an unqualified success--I just regret having had to leave early.

all of us appreciated your taking the time to meet with STAT us. Again, thank you so much.

Yours,

I would be very pleased if you could be our guest speaker here at CIA Headquarters. I would suggest 17 January 1984 but would be happy to accommodate your schedule if that date is not convenient. Our program normally consists of a lecture of approximately 30 to 40 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period. Lectures are usually scheduled from 1500-1615 hours. Your reflections on the "Academician's View of the United Nations," or any related topic of your choice, would be of keen interest to our audience.

I hope you are able to accept this invitation. [redacted] will be pleased to discuss any arrangements with your staff. She can be reached on [redacted]
